Matthew 25:14-19 ESV

The balance of Christianity is that while we're waiting we're also working.

"But he answered, 'Truly, I say to you, I do not know you.' Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." (Matthew 25:12-13 ESV)

"So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead." (James 2:17 ESV)

There's a responsibility we must accept.

"For it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away." (v. 14-15)

There's a response we must have.

"He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he made five talents more. ¹⁷So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. ¹⁸But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. ¹⁹Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them." (v. 16-19)
